

Dusty meets Rusty in the hospital

Rusty was weak after his life transplant operation, but happy to meet his new Angel pal Dusty.

Rusty & Dusty compare notes on the big guy

Rusty and Dusty both had "Amazing Verne" stories to swap. The big guy was all they could meow about for a long time.

Wow! More lives? Well, on the very first day Verne took 78 fleas off me!

Verne is a Saint! I used up my 9 lives but he asked God to give me a few more!

Rusty was deeply touched by Dusty. He could see that she really was a cat Angel. He almost choked on the meows when he told her "I love you, Dusty."

Dusty drew close to the legendary furball and whispered to him "I love you, too, Rusty."
