

Dust Ball's kid brother

Dust Ball was happy to have her kid brother living and working on the Cat & Cactus Farm. Cougar and Dust Ball soon negotiated a fair division of the territory in Verne's office.

- Cougar could lay on Verne's notebook by the keyboard—because he was so small.
- Dust Ball would keep the middle shelf in the cart next to Verne's chair.
- Cougar could lay on Verne's chair to keep it warm for him.
- Dust Ball would continue to lay on the customer packing lists to keep those warm for Verne.
