

Dustball finally had a cat friend

Rusty was 16 and had no interest in Dustball's kitten games. Her first year was lonely; her only pal was a human named Verne.

She learned to hunt by imitating what Rusty did, but had to seek out Verne for affection.

When Cougar joined the staff of Cat & Cactus Heaven she suddenly had a play-mate.

Cougar was the kitten with whom Dustball could finally learn how to be a playful, joyful cat.

But most importantly she had family; a loving young brother to cuddle up with for those long sleepy nights.

